

Write SnO_2 compound name.

The compound with the chemical formula SnO_2 is called tin (IV) oxide or stannous oxide. This compound is an inorganic compound composed of tin and oxygen.

It is a dark-brown, crystalline solid with a metallic luster that is used as a precursor to other tin compounds, as a catalyst, and as a pigment in paints and ceramics.